

Gay Fort Lauderdale How NC FLL

Just how does this 'Naked Concierge' thing work?

It's really very simple and not scary at all unless you see me before coffee in the morning!

Two important things you should know:

1. My goal is to help each guest custom design their visit so that it is the BEST for him or her. There's a little something for everyone and I'll do my best to help you find it.... if you can help me by telling me what you're looking for.
2. Everything that you see here on the site and all the work that I do to provide the information for you personally - is FREE. Yep... no cost to you at all.

However, I do have expenses related to providing the site and the information so your support is appreciated.

And just how can you support the site and the work that I do, you ask?

1. Allow me to make as many of your travel arrangements as I can (including room, dinner, rental car, excursion reservations.. just to name a few). Think of me as a very personal travel agent. This DOES NOT increase the price that you pay but it often helps support the site financially.
... and you may be able to save some money by using my site and services - so what do you have to lose?
2. Tell others about the site - including your friends and any business or service that you see listed on the site.
3. Tips - yes, the Naked Concierge accepts and appreciates your personal, financial thank you's too.

So.. start searching through all the information on the site - I try to keep it up to date - and when you have specific questions, JUST ASK! I'll do my best to provide you the answers you need to plan the best visit possible
...the BEST visit for YOU!
